

Requirements for completing the subject Laboratory Diagnostics

1. The student is obligated to attend all classes, seminars and lectures.
2. Are allowed a maximum of 2 absence per semester. The absence can be excused on the basis of sick leave or written consent of the Dean. Unexcused absence as well as being late to class more than 15 minutes causes the student will receive an unsatisfactory grade from the test.
3. Excused absence means no evaluation of the test and the material must be passed during an additional final test.
3. CLASSES: at the beginning of each class will be carried out test of knowledge from the class (10 minutes, single choice test – 60% to pass). 60- 3, 70% - 3+, 80% - 4, 90% - 4+, 100% - 5.
4. Final grade of the classes is the average of the marks obtained in the various tests, provided that the student has written all the tests in a semester, and all evaluations were positive.
5. Persons who not received a positive final grade of the classes are able to obtain credit in the additional test covers the parts of the material which was not written (excused absence) or from which student received unsatisfactory grades.
6. Student to pass the seminars should prepare the multimedial presentations.
7. The final exam is a written exams. Student to pass should get 60 % of the single choice test (50 questions): 60%-69% - 3, 70- 79% -3+, 80%-89% - 4, 90%-95% - 4+, 96- 100% - 5.
8. The student should leave their jackets and shoes in locker room.
9. The student should change shoes and dress a lab coat before classes.
10. The student should behave in a proper manner during classes (is not allowed to eat, to use a mobile phone).
11. Is not allowed to use mobile phones and to talk to other students during tests and exam.
12. The student should know health and safety regulations.
13. Issues not included in the regulations resolved the head of the department.